

Thursday 25th Aug 2022

IIM Jammu welcomes SPIC Macay Founder

GJ REPORT

JAMMU, AUG 24: IIM Jammu in collaboration with SPIC Macay welcomed Padamshree Dr. Kiran Seth, founder of SPIC Macay. Dr. Seth is on a Cycle Yatra from Kashmir to Kanyakumari. In line with the mission of his yatra, there was a fruitful and interesting interaction between Dr. Seth with the faculty, staff, and students and with all the esteemed heads of the Institutes of Jammu.

The interaction was done with a motto to highlight the society's indispensable contribution to revitalizing, exploring, and preserving the diverse and classic culture of India. The unique highlight is he reached the interior parts of the state and sensitize them about the culture, and our heritage which would in turn lead to better learning and creation of responsible professionals.

Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director IIM Jammu, introduced Dr. Kiran Seth, Founder of SPIC Macay, and spoke about his contribution to music, culture, art, and society. He highlighted the importance of empowering artists to artisans nationwide to immerse the faculty and student body in the learning and beauty of music, arts, and craft. He also emphasized the need to create an ambiance of cultural diversity, classical erudition, and appreciation through courses, seminars, workshops, and cultural events to keep the integrity, art, and tradition of our nation intact. He urged the students to have a definite purpose in life for moving ahead and achieving success.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Kiran Seth, mentioned the actual purpose behind his cycling from Srinagar to Kanyakumari. He emphasized that today's young generation is on the bright side than the earlier generation since they have a lot of avenues, and the only grey area is they believe in what they see.

Dr. Seth was felicitated by Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu. The session concluded with a vote of thanks. Present on the occasion were Prof. Jabir Ali, Dean Academics, Dr. Barnali Chaudhary, Chairperson Student Affairs, Dr. Sapna Sangra, and all the esteemed heads, faculty.

Thursday, 25 August 2022

IIIM Jammu welcomes SPIC Macay Founder

■ TNN BUREAU

JAMMU: Indian Institutes of Management (IIIM) Jammu welcomed Padamshree Dr. Kiran Seth, founder of SPIC Macay. Dr. Seth is on a Cycle Yatra from Kashmir to Kanyakumari. Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director IIIM Jammu, introduced Dr. Kiran Seth, Founder of SPIC Macay and spoke about his contribution to music, culture, art, and society. He highlighted the importance of empowering artists to artisans nationwide to immerse the faculty and student body in the learning and beauty of music, arts, and craft.

He urged the students to have a definite purpose in life for moving ahead and achieving success.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Kiran Seth, mentioned the actual purpose behind his cycling from Srinagar to Kanyakumari. He emphasized that today's young generation is on the bright side than the earlier generation since they have a lot of avenues, and the only grey area is they believe in what they see. He quoted practical life examples of Einstein, Vocalist Ram Charan Malik, and Ustad Bismillah Khan who with their deep introspection could see beyond reality. He cited the need for deep introspection to see many things that exist. He motivated the students to learn from the people who have a vision for the best, never to deny what they have, and deep introspection can lead you towards your goals. According to him, Patience and faith are the main boundaries that can help us follow the path of our ancestors. He mentioned the examples of music and yoga for mind-changing concentration levels.

IIM Jammu welcomes SPIC Macay Founder

NL CORRESPONDENT

JAMMU TAWI, AUG 24
IIM Jammu in collaboration with SPIC Macay welcomed Padam Shree Dr. Kiran Seth, founder of SPIC Macay. Dr. Seth is on a Cycle Yatra from Kashmir to Kanyakumari. In line with the mission of his yatra, there was a fruitful and interesting interaction between Dr. Seth with the faculty, staff, and students and with all the esteemed heads of the Institutes of Jammu. The interaction was done with a motto to highlight the society's indispensable contribution to revitalizing, exploring, and preserving the diverse and classic culture of India. The unique highlight is to reach the interior parts of the state and sensitize them about the culture, and our heritage which would in turn lead to better learning and creation of responsible professionals.

Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director IIM Jammu, introduced Dr. Kiran Seth, Founder of SPIC Macay, and spoke about his contribution to music, culture, art, and society. He highlighted the importance of empowering artists to artisans nationwide to immerse the faculty and student body in the learning and beauty of music, arts, and craft. He urged the students to have a definite purpose in life for moving ahead and achieving success.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Kiran Seth, mentioned the actual purpose behind his cycling from Srinagar to Kanyakumari. He emphasized that today's young generation is on the bright side than the earlier generation since they have a lot of avenues, and the only grey area is they believe in what they see. He quoted practical life examples of Einstein, Vocalist Ram Chatur Malik, and Ustad Bismillah Khan who with their deep introspection could see beyond reality. He motivated the students to learn from the people who have a vision for the best, never to deny what they have, and deep introspection can lead you towards your goals.

Adding further, he complimented the Gurukul system of India along with the contribution of Dr. Sapna Sangra, Chairperson, SPIC Macay J&K, and Ms. Pathania who have deeply contributed to the progress of SPIC Macay. He urged the students to be single pointed and further advised the students to take up a serious endeavour in life and make it a regular practice. Dr. Seth was felicitated by Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu. The session concluded with a vote of thanks.

daily Excelsior

CHANAKYA IAS ACADEMY
announces batches for
IAS/KAS
Batch
5th September 2022
2 years and 3 years batch available
for college going students
IAS/KAS (Pre-test & Main)
Test Series Available
8715823063/4

Follow us: Daily Excelsior

JAMMU, THURSDAY, AUGUST 25, 2022

REGD NO. JK-7121-23
PNI No. 28547/65

Vol No. 58
No. 234

12 Pages

₹ 6.00

Thursday 25th Aug 2022

SPIC MACAY Founder at IIM Jammu during his cycle rally from Kashmir to Kanyakumari.

SPIC MACAY Founder at IIM Jammu

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Aug 24: Founder of SPIC MACAY, Padamsheer Dr Kiran Seth, who is on a Cycle Yatra from Kashmir to Kanyakumari, today reached IIM Jammu and had interaction with the faculty, staff, students and heads of various Institutes of Jammu.

The interaction was done with a motto to highlight the society's indispensable contribution to revitalizing, exploring and preserving the diverse and classic culture of India.

Prof B S Sahay, Director IIM Jammu, introduced Dr Kiran Seth and spoke about his contribution to music, culture, art and society. He highlighted the importance of empowering artists to artisans nationwide to immerse the faculty and student body in the learning and beauty of music, arts, and craft. He also emphasized the need to create an ambiance of cultural diversity, classical erudition, and appreciation through courses, seminars, workshops and cultural events to keep the integrity, art, and tradition of our nation intact. He urged the students to have a definite purpose in life for moving ahead and achieving success.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr Kiran Seth mentioned the actual purpose behind his cycling from Srinagar to Kanyakumari. He emphasized that today's young generation is on the bright side than the earlier generation since they have a lot of avenues and the only grey area is they believe in what they see. He quoted practical life examples of Einstein, Vocalist Ram Chatur Malik and Ustad Bismillah Khan who with their deep introspection could see beyond reality. He cited the need for deep introspection to see many things that exist.

Dr Seth motivated the students to learn from the people who have a vision for the best, never to deny what they have and deep introspection for leading towards goals. According to him, patience and faith are the main boundaries that can help us follow the path of our ancestors. He mentioned the examples of music and yoga for mind-changing concentration levels.

Dr Seth complimented Dr Sapna Sangra, Chairperson, SPIC Macay J&K and Pathania for their contribution to the progress of SPIC MACAY.

Present on the occasion were Prof Jabir Ali, Dean Academics; Dr Barnali Chaudhary, Chairperson Student Affairs; Dr Sapna Sangra, Dr Seema Rohmetra and the faculty members.

The fruitful interaction saw the august presence of heads of the Institutions from the Jammu region.

Thursday 25th Aug 2022-Web Version

SPIC MACAY Founder at IIM Jammu

By Daily Excelsior 25/08/2022

SPIC MACAY Founder at IIM Jammu during his cycle rally from Kashmir to Kanyakumari.
Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Aug 24: Founder of SPIC MACAY, Padamshree Dr Kiran Seth, who is on a Cycle Yatra from Kashmir to Kanyakumari, today reached IIM Jammu and had interaction with the faculty, staff, students and heads of various Institutes of Jammu. The interaction was done with a motto to highlight the society's indispensable contribution to revitalizing, exploring and preserving the diverse and classic culture of India.

Prof B S Sahay, Director IIM Jammu, introduced Dr Kiran Seth and spoke about his contribution to music, culture, art and society. He highlighted the importance of empowering artists to artisans nationwide to immerse the faculty and student body in the learning and beauty of music, arts, and craft. He also emphasized the need to create an ambiance of cultural diversity, classical erudition, and appreciation through courses, seminars, workshops and cultural events to keep the integrity, art, and tradition of our nation intact. He urged the students to have a definite purpose in life for moving ahead and achieving success. Speaking on the occasion, Dr Kiran Seth mentioned the actual purpose behind his cycling from Srinagar to Kanyakumari.

He emphasized that today's young generation is on the bright side than the earlier generation since they have a lot of avenues and the only grey area is they believe in what they see. He quoted practical life examples of Einstein, Vocalist Ram Chatur Malik and Ustad Bismillah Khan who with their deep introspection could see beyond reality. He cited the need for deep introspection to see many things that exist. Dr Seth motivated the students to learn from the people who have a vision for the best, never to deny what they have and deep introspection for leading towards goals. According to him, patience and faith are the main boundaries that can help us follow the path of our ancestors.

He mentioned the examples of music and yoga for mind-changing concentration levels. Dr Seth complimented Dr Sapna Sangra, Chairperson, SPIC Macay J&K and Pathania for their contribution to the progress of SPIC MACAY. Present on the occasion were Prof Jabir Ali, Dean Academics; Dr Barnali Chaudhary, Chairperson Student Affairs; Dr Sapna Sangra, Dr Seema Rohmetra and the faculty members. The fruitful interaction saw the august presence of heads of the Institutions from the Jammu region.

<https://www.dailyexcelsior.com/spic-macay-founder-at-iim-jammu/>

Thursday 25th Aug 2022

FINANCIAL EXPLORER

JAMMU, THURSDAY,

IIM Jammu welcomes SPIC Macay Founder

JAMMU AUG 24 IIM Jammu in collaboration with S P I C Macay welcomed Padamshree Dr. Kiran Seth, founder of SPIC Macay. Dr. Seth is on a Cycle Yatra from Kashmir to Kanyakumari. In line with the mission of his yatra, there was a fruitful and interesting interaction between Dr. Seth with the faculty, staff, and students and with all the esteemed heads of the Institutes of Jammu. The interaction was done with a motto to highlight the society's indispensable contribution to revitalizing, exploring, and preserving the diverse and classic culture of India. The unique highlight is reach the interior parts of the state and sensitize them about the culture, and our heritage which would in turn lead to better learning and creation of responsible professionals.

Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu, introduced Dr. Kiran Seth, Founder of SPIC Macay, and spoke about his contribution to music, culture, art, and society. He highlighted the importance of empowering artists to artisans nationwide to immerse the faculty and student body in the learning and beauty of music, arts, and craft. He also emphasized the need to create an ambiance of cultural diversity, classical erudition, and appreciation through courses, seminars, workshops, and cultural events to keep the integrity, art, and tradition of our nation intact. He urged the students to have a definite purpose in life for moving ahead and achieving success.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Kiran Seth, mentioned the actual purpose behind his cycling from Srinagar to Kanyakumari. He emphasized that today's young generation is on the bright side than the earlier generations since they have a lot of avenues, and the only grey area is they believe in what they see. He quoted practical life examples of Einstein, Vocalist RamChatur Malik, and Ustad Bismillah Khan who with their deep introspection could see beyond reality. He cited the need for deep introspection to see many things that exist. He motivated the students to learn from the people who have a vision for the best, never to deny what they have, and deep introspection can lead you towards your goals. According to him, Patience and faith are the main boundaries that can help us follow the path of our ancestors. He mentioned the examples of music and yoga for mind-changing concentration levels.

Adding further, he complimented the Gurukul system of India along with the contribution of Dr. Sapna Sangra, Chairperson, SPIC Macay J&K, and Ms. Pathania who have deeply contributed to the progress of SPIC Macay.

He urged the students to be single pointed and further advised the students to take up a serious endeavour in life and make it a regular practise.

Dr. Seth then traced the trajectory of the society from its start to its far-reaching goals of combining academic knowledge with classic knowledge of music, arts, and craft for a wholesome upbringing of the student body.

Dr. Seth was felicitated by Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu. The session concluded with a vote of thanks. Present on the occasion were Prof. Jabir Ali, Dean Academics, Dr. Barnali Chaudhary, Chairperson Student Affairs, Dr. Sapna Sangra, and all the esteemed heads, faculty. The fruitful interaction saw the august presence of esteemed heads of the Institutions from the Jammu region who pledged to take this mission forward.

Thursday 25th Aug 2022

7

EARLY POST

News

Jammu, Thursday, August 25, 2022

IIM Jammu welcomes SPIC Macay Founder

Early Post Desk.
JAMMU: IIM Jammu in collaboration with SPIC Macay welcomed Padamsree Dr. Kiran Seth, founder of SPIC Macay. Dr. Seth is on a Cycle Yatra from Kashmir to Kanyakumari in line with the mission of his yatra, there was fruitful and interesting interaction between Dr. Seth and students, staff, and faculty, and with the esteemed heads of the Institutes of Jammu. The interaction was done with a motto to highlight the society's indispensable contribution to revitalizing, exploring, and preserving the diverse and classic culture of India. The unique highlight is reach the interior parts of the state and sensitize them about the culture, and our heritage which would in turn lead to better learning and creation of responsible professionals.

 Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director IIM Jammu, introduced Dr. Kiran Seth, Founder of SPIC Macay, and spoke about his contribution to music, culture, art, and society. He highlighted the importance of empowering artists to immerse the faculty and student body in the learning and beauty of music, arts, and craft. He also emphasized the need to create an ambience of cultural diversity, classical erudition, and appreciation through courses, seminars, workshops, and cultural events to keep the integrity, art, and tradition of our nation intact. He urged the students to have a definite purpose in life for moving ahead and achieving success.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Kiran Seth, mentioned the actual purpose behind his cycling from Srinagar to Kanyakumari. He emphasized that today's young generation is on the bright side than the earlier generations since they have a lot of avenues, and the only grey area is they believe in what they see. He quoted practical life examples of Einstein, Vocalist Ram Chatur Malik, and Ustad Bismillah Khan who with their deep introspection could see beyond reality. He cited the need for deep introspection to see many things that exist. He motivated the students to learn from the people who have a vision for the best, never to deny what they have, and deep introspection can lead you towards your goals. According to him, Patience and faith are the main boundaries that can help us follow the path of our ancestors. He mentioned the examples of music and yoga for mind-changing concentration levels.

 Adding further, he complimented the Gurukul system of India along with the contribution of Dr. Sapna Sangra, Chairperson, SPIC Macay J&K, and Ms. Pathania who have deeply contributed to the progress of SPIC Macay. He urged the students to be single pointed and further advised the students to take up a serious endeavour in life and make it a regular practice. Dr. Seth then traced the trajectory of the society from its start to its far-reaching goals of combining academic knowledge with classic knowledge of music, arts, and craft for a wholesome upbringing of the student body.

 Dr. Seth was felicitated by Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu. The session concluded with a vote of thanks. Present on the occasion were Prof. Jabir Ali, Dean Academics, Dr. Barnali Chaudhary, Chairperson Student Affairs, Dr. Sapna Sangra, and all the esteemed heads, faculty.

The fruitful interaction saw the august presence of esteemed heads of the Institutions from the Jammu region who pledged to take this mission forward.

Thursday, 25 August 2022

IIM Jammu Welcomes SPIC Macay Founder

Jammu: IIM Jammu in collaboration with SPIC Macay welcomed Padamshree Dr. Kiran Seth, founder of SPIC Macay. Dr. Seth is on a Cycle Yatra from Kashmir to Kanyakumari. In line with the mission of his yatra, there was a fruitful and interesting interaction between Dr. Seth with the faculty, staff, and students and with all the esteemed heads of the Institutes of Jammu. The interaction was done with a motto to highlight the society's indispensable contribution to revitalizing, exploring, and preserving the diverse and classic culture of India. The unique highlight is reach the interior parts of the state and sensitize them about the culture, and our heritage which would in turn lead to better learning and creation of responsible professionals.

Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director IIM Jammu, introduced Dr. Kiran Seth, Founder of SPIC Macay, and spoke about his contribution to music, culture, art, and society. He highlighted the importance of empowering artists to artisans nationwide to immerse the faculty and student body in the learning and beauty of music, arts, and craft. He also emphasized the need to create an ambiance of cultural diversity, classical erudition, and appreciation through courses, seminars, workshops, and cultural events to keep the integrity, art, and tradition of our nation intact. He urged the students to have a definite purpose in life for moving ahead and achieving success.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Kiran Seth, mentioned the actual purpose behind his cycling from Srinagar to Kanyakumari. He emphasized that today's young generation is on the bright side than the earlier generation since they have a lot of avenues, and the only grey area is they believe in what they see. He quoted practical life examples of Einstein, Vocalist Ram Chatur Malik, and Ustad Bismillah Khan who with their deep introspection could see beyond reality. He cited the need for deep introspection to see many things that exist. He motivated the students to learn from the people who have a vision for the best, never to deny what they have, and deep introspection can lead you towards your goals. According to him, Patience and faith are the main boundaries that can help us follow the path of our ancestors. He mentioned the examples of music and yoga for mind-changing concentration levels.

Adding further, he complimented the Gurukul system of India along with the contribution of Dr. Sapna Sangra, Chairperson, SPIC Macay J&K, and Ms. Pathania who have deeply contributed to the progress of SPIC Macay. He urged the students to be single pointed and further advised the students to take up a serious endeavour in life and make it a regular practise. Dr. Seth then traced the trajectory of the society from its start to its far-reaching goals of combining academic knowledge with classic knowledge of music, arts, and craft for a wholesome upbringing of the student body

Dr. Seth was felicitated by Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu. The session concluded with a vote of thanks. Present on the occasion were Prof. Jabir Ali, Dean Academics, Dr. Barnali Chaudhary, Chairperson Student Affairs, Dr. Sapna Sangra, and all the esteemed heads, faculty.

The fruitful interaction saw the august presence of esteemed heads of the Institutions from the Jammu region who pledged to take this mission forward.

<https://indiaeducationdiary.in/iim-jammu-welcomes-spic-macay-founder-and-flags-off-his-cycle-rally-from-jammu-to-kanyakumari/>